The musical score is written for piano on a grand staff. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The melody is in the treble clef, and the accompaniment is in the bass clef. The score consists of six measures. The first measure contains the lyrics 'Jingle all the way!' and the second measure contains 'Oh, what fun it'. The third measure contains 'is to ride in a' and the fourth measure contains 'one horse op-en'. The fifth measure contains 'sleigh!' and the sixth measure is a final chord. The chords are indicated above the staff: B-flat, B-flat major, F, B-flat, F, and C7. The bass line features a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the first two measures, followed by a more complex rhythmic pattern in the third measure, and then a series of chords and single notes in the fourth, fifth, and sixth measures.

1. Dashing through the snow in a one horse open sleigh;

Over fields we go, laughing all the way.

Bells on bobtails ring, making spirits bright,

What fund it is to rids and sing a sleighing song tonight!

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way

Oh, what fun it is to ride in a one horse open sleigh... (repeat)

2. A day or two ago I thought I'd take a ride,

Soon Miss Fanny Bright was seated at my side.

The horse was lean and lank, misfortune seem'd his lot,

He got into a drift bank, and we, we got upsot!

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way

Oh, what fun it is to ride in a one horse open sleigh... (repeat)

3. Now the ground is white, go it while you're young!

Take the girls tonight, and sing this sleighing song.

Just get a bobtail'd bay, two forty for his speed,

The hitch him up an open sleigh and crack! you'll take the lead.

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way

Oh, what fun it is to ride in a one horse open sleigh... (repeat)
